

Group Chief Financial Officer, Kyiv (possibly Moscow)

Main responsibilities:

- Control all treasury and accounting activities
- Forecasting, optimizing and budgeting of the Group's local and international cash flows
- Designing and enforcing cost control procedures
- Implementing and overseeing onshore and offshore corporate tax and legal structuring
- Supporting business development activity
- Tracking Key Performance Indicators
- Prepare and control internal financial reporting
- Controlling co-operation with external auditors
- Strong involvement in national and international fundraising and financing activities
- Supervise compliance of all entities
- Prepare regular company reports to the international CEO and shareholders
- Responsible for personnel and legal department

Requirements:

- Accounting, financial audit and treasury background is required - experience in Big 4 would be a strong plus
- Strong financial analytical abilities (financial, modelling and etc)
- Good management skills, proactive personality and excellent attention to detail
- Experience in financial service providers would be a plus, but is not a must
- Must be a team-player that takes responsibility rapidly
- Fluent written and spoken English
- Native Russian would be a strong plus

Company:

- Very fast growing company
- Company is part owned by a large Private Equity fund
- Western work environment and measurement
- Management is highly professional
- Company offers very competitive salary + bonus + possibly share options

Qualified candidates are invited to submit a resume to hr@horizoncapital.com.ua